VERIFIED FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES

Indians can enter Thailand for tourism without a visa for up to 30 days. For a longer stay, apply for a tourist e-visa before you travel.

Visa-free stay	30 days, tourism only (in force from 15 Sep 2026 until further notice)
Tourist e-visa	Single or multiple entry, up to 60 days per entry. Apply online on the official portal
Where to apply	Online only, at thaievisa.go.th (since 1 Jan 2025)

Before you travel

- ☐ Decide the stay: up to 30 days for tourism needs no visa; longer or non-tourism trips need an e-visa.
- ☐ For an e-visa, apply on the official portal. Paper applications are not taken for tourist visas.

Documents

- ☐ The embassy publishes the tourist e-visa document checklist as a download on its visa page (link below). Open that checklist and share it with your customer; we do not copy it here until we have read it in full.

Good to know

- The embassy works by appointment only.

Key points

- No visa is needed for a tourist trip of up to 30 days on an Indian ordinary passport.
- The exemption is for tourism only. Other purposes need a visa.
- For a longer stay, a Tourist (TR) visa allows up to 60 days per entry.
- Since 1 January 2025 all visa applications go through the official e-Visa website, thaievisa.go.th.

Conditions

Visa-free for a stay of up to 30 days (reduced to 30 days from 60 days effective 15 Sep 2026). From 1 May 2025, a digital arrival card must be filled, up to three days before arrival (TDAC).
